Federal election law requires political committees to use best efforts to report the name, mailing address, occupation, and name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 during an election cycle. Corporate contributions and contributions by foreign nationals (non-green card holders), labor unions, and federal government contractors are prohibited. Contributions are not deductible for federal income tax purposes. An individual may not contribute more than a total of $5,200 to the campaign; $2,600 for the primary election debt and $2,600 for the general election. PACs may contribute a maximum of $10,000 to the campaign; $5,000 for the primary election debt and $5,000 for the general election. Not Printed at Government Expense.

Paid for by Joni Ernst for U.S. Senate, Inc.
