

ON IRAQ: SENATOR VOINOVICH FORGETS WE KNOW HIS VOTING RECORD

Senator Voinovich's voting record shows a long history of supporting President Bush on Iraq. But when he is in front of a camera or microphone, he is singing a different tune.

VOINOVICH TALKS A GOOD GAME ABOUT ENDING THE WAR

Voinovich Said He Would Tell The President To Get Out Gracefully. Voinovich would advise President Bush to get out of Iraq. "He [Voinovich] vented his frustration with the Iraq war, saying that if Bush were sitting across from him, 'I would tell him on the war that I would try to extricate myself as gracefully as I possibly can.' Voinovich said that Bush must stress anew to the Iraqis that American support 'is not open-ended. We've got to let these people know that we're on our way out, and it's going to be your baby.'" [Columbus Dispatch, 5/6/07]

Voinovich Said The War Has Been "Bungled" From The Beginning. Voinovich said the war has been a mess from the beginning. "In the U.S. Senate, Sen. George Voinovich, R-Ohio, said he believes Saddam Hussein needed to be ousted, but he said the war has been bungled virtually from the outset. He is concerned about the financial debt the war will leave for future generations." [Dayton Daily News, 3/29/07]

Voinovich Said He Didn't Think A Troop Surge Would Help End Violence. Voinovich said he didn't think a troop surge would end sectarian violence. "At this point, I am skeptical that a surge in troops alone will bring an end to sectarian violence and the insurgency that is fomenting instability in Iraq. The generals who have served there do not believe additional troops alone will help," Voinovich said. [Akron Beacon Journal, 1/11/07]

BUT HE CONSISTENTLY VOTES FOR THE WAR

Voinovich Voted Against The Emergency Supplemental Conference Report. Senator Voinovich voted against the conference report on the bill that provided $124.2 billion in fiscal 2007 emergency funding, it also set a goal for redeployment of troops in Iraq by the end of March 2008. If the president can not verify that the Iraq government is meeting benchmarks then the troops would redeploy by the end of 2007. The legislation also provides $95.9 billion for military operations, $6.9 for hurricane recovery and $3.5 billion for crop programs. H.R. 1591, [Vote # 147, 4/26/07, passed 51-46]
