ANNCR VO: George Bush just vetoed Abby.

And Josh.

He vetoed Latoya

And Kevin.

Bush vetoed health insurance for millions of America's children whose parents' work, but can't afford coverage.

George Bush and his backers would rather send half a trillion to Iraq than spend a fraction of that here to keep our kids healthy.

Congress can override Bush's veto. So ask your representative:

Do they stand with him?

Or with them?
